Wheeler & Stevens, the real estate agents located in the Ploebus block, are always supplied with farms, and desirable city property at bargain. They do a general real estate business and show property free of charge. When you want to buy or sell anything in their line call and see them.

Acknowledged by all the ladies that are posted that Archie Reid's immense stock embraces more new styles and offers better inducements to buyers than any house in the city.

REPUBLICAN ASSEMBLY CONVENTION.

The Republican assembly of the Second Assembly District, Book county, will meet by their delegates at the common council chamber in the city of Juncosville at 10 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, October 26th, for the purpose of electing a delegate to the general assembly. The delegates from each town and ward will be entitled to the same number of delegates as in the county convention.

The committee would recommend that the delegates be held on Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock (first, second and fourth wards) at the usual places of holding such meetings.

By Order of the Committee.
Juncosville, Oct. 25th, 1895.

BRILLIANT.

—Juncosville City Lodge No. 90, I. O. O. F., occupy Old Fellows hall this evening—regular weekly meeting.

—Oao more man whose thirst had led him astray stopped at Sheriff Nathanson's "home" for icebergs last night.

—Oriental Lodge No. 23, Knights of Pythias, assemble at Castle hall this evening—regular weekly meeting.

—Sale of reserved seats for a "Pair of Kids" will commence to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock at Prentice & Evenson's.

—The painter has been at work in Terrant & Osmonds' grocery and his brush has worked a great change. The store is now as bright and handsome as could be desired.

—Miss Millie Chittenden pleasantly entertained a company of friends at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Chittenden, Academy street, last evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Bliss, of the Gazette, enjoyed the pleasure of entertaining a host of friends last evening, the occasion being the anniversary which marks the twenty years of married life.

—It now appears, by town talk among prominent and influential democrats, that either Ald. T. T. Croft or J. B. Joe, Jr., will receive the democratic nomination for member of assembly in this assembly district.

—The second assembly district committee consists of Messrs. Silas Hayner, S. C. Barnham, E. P. Carpenter, M. H. Curtis, Wilson Lane, Isaac Miles and Evan Evans. This committee has the calling of the republican assembly convention for the second district.

—Postmaster Richardson received the following notice to-day from Chicago with a request to have the same published in the city papers:—"Mr. W. E. Sheldon, of Chicago, will be in Juncosville this week to talk to the churches on Gospel Temperance, in the First Methodist and Second churches, Lord permitting."

Reduction in price. The fifty cent bottles of Collins' Cherry Cough Cure for twenty-five cents. It is now the cheapest as well as the best cough remedy in the market—contains no opiates and is the only safe remedy for children. Only twenty-five cents for large bottle. Sold only by Prentice & Evenson, opposite postoffice.

—Mr. W. H. Tripp, of the town of Rock, who has seen nearly three-score years and ten, informs a Gazette reporter that he has on his farm 50 acres of wheat and 15 acres of rye, all looking very well. He plowed all the ground except 10 acres without a sulky plow. He will vote for Jarry Rusk for governor, and nominates "our Jerry" for president in 1896. Mr. Tripp believes in wearing out instead of rusting out.

—At the opera house plasterers and carpenters are pushing the work along as fast as possible. The stairway and entrance that so often made theatre-goers pine for an elevator, has been entirely torn out and a great improvement is being made in that part of the house. Oscar Cobb, the architect in charge, arrived last evening and to-day looking after the general features of the work while his superintendent devoted his time to stage fittings.

—March Hogn to-day received orders to arrest John Levin and John Dixon, who together with David Cregan, are charged with a murder committed at Rockford, Saturday night. August Valentine was set upon Saturday night by the three, no one of whom is over twenty years old. He was terribly pounded, kicked and bruised, and died at an early hour yesterday morning of his injuries. Cregan is in jail and the others have skipped and officers and citizens are looking in every direction for them.

—Judge Patton, Marshal Hogan and Deputy Sheriff Adcock were all up before the tramp committee at the court house to-day. The various means of disposing of vagrants were discussed fully and it was suggested that Chairman Lee, of the committee, correspond with police justices in the other cities and see what results have been accomplished. No decision in the matter has yet been reached. The report that will be made to the county board next month will be watched for with much interest.

—To-day Professor C. H. Keyes breathed a sigh of relief as he put the last book of the recently purchased High School library into its place. The books have been carefully selected and, as the list published in the Gazette a short time ago shows, are of a character to help the pupils both in their studies and in general training. Each pupil is to have a card, but can draw only one book at a time. No book is allowed to be taken home, except by special permission, as the intention is to have the library in such shape that the various works now on its shelves can be referred to at any time during school hours.

—Justice Priebard, to-day, decided the longest case he ever tried and probably the longest one ever tried in justice court, in this city. It was about eighty days on trial and there were almost forty witnesses sworn. It was the case of Laubeus v. Shopbell & Norris, Laubeus claimed that the defendants had sold him a refrigerator that did not work well and claimed $165 damages. The defendants showed that it was not one of their refrigerators, but one made according to a plan of Laubeus' own invention. A great many witnesses who tried the Jackson refrigerator swore that it is the best they ever used, taking less ice and keeping things cooler and dryer than any other kind. The court found for the defendants. Wm. Smith and J. B. Doe, Jr. appeared for the plaintiff and M. G. Jeffris for the defendants.

—Lorenzo Witham, charged with fail-

TO SUPPORT HIS WIFE, CAME UP FOR TRIAL BEFORE JUDGE PATTON TO-DAY.

The jurors sworn were B. Wheeler, David Conger, Eugene Frendall, Charles Gray and C. H. Knuch, and as both sides agreed to go on with this number the testimony was begun. When the state rested a motion was made to discharge the defendant, for the reason that no ability to support had been shown. The motion was overruled, and as we go to press, the witnesses for the defense are being examined. Henry Smith appears for the state and G. G. Sutherland for the defendant.

—Miss Julia C. Emery, general secretary of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Episcopal Board of Missions to the United States, will speak in Trinity church chapel this evening at 7:30 o'clock. There is no one of the officers of the church who know more of the inner spirit and details of its missionary work than Miss Emery. She is a sympathetic and pleasing speaker. The Woman's Auxiliary has forty-three dioceses and many parish branches, and does work in forty-four dioceses and twelve missionary jurisdictions. In 1884-5 the amount contributed to missions through it was $202,802.25. In this sum is included 1,995 boxes filled with clothing and other useful articles, sent to missionaries at home and abroad. The ladies of the parish are specially invited to attend the meeting this evening, but all others interested will be welcome.

A PATHEMIC SCENE.

A BIG MIRROR REFLECTED A YOUNG CHILD.

The terrible accident which befell a young boy, of Juncosville, at Oak Court, Fond du Lac county, Friday afternoon, was reported in the telegraphic columns of yesterday's issue. It will be remembered that Kay was knocked off under the wheels, and that as he passed over one of his legs. A. A. Hinson was near by the time of the accident, and related a pathetic scene which followed. The fireman of the engine, Henry Brezzel, a big, stout man, when he saw that Kay had been run over, rushed out of the engine in a terrible alarm and utterly broke down, crying like a young child. It may not be generally known but it is nevertheless a fact, Mr. Hinson says, that it takes about all the life out of an engineer when he finds that he has run his engine over a person and that the accident resulted fatally. Mr. Hinson says that after an engineer possessed of any feeling for service on a fast track, his nerves being very unsteady, making him unreliable—Oakland, Northwestern.

"A PAIR OF KIDS."

Our readers will remember the appearance last season of Ezra F. Kendall, in "A Pair of Kids," and how well pleased all were. The company, reinforced, will appear again at Lippin's hall, on Friday evening. The Philadelphia Enquirer a recent date says: "For those who go to the theatre solely to laugh there are few better plays than Ezra F. Kendall's musical comedy 'A Pair of Kids,' now running at the Arch-Street Theatre. It is purely a mélange of nonsense; it can't be criticized in any sober vein; it is a jumble of witty speeches and ludicrous situations, with a few songs and dances interspersed; the whole intended purely and simply to make people laugh—and this it does continually. The audience was convulsed last night."

Of course, in a piece of this kind every thing depends on the actors; and Mr. Kendall, himself a rare comedian, has gathered a large company, every member of which plays excellently well, while Mr. Fitz, Mr. Dunn, Miss Jessie Langley and Miss Jennie Dunn, who, with Mr. Kendall, carry the burden of the play, show decided talent in several different lines.

"Disseased nature oftentimes breaks forth in strange eruptions," and the result, of a pair of kids, as Mr. Kendall will say, is a very plain to the right about at the trifling cost of only 25 cents.

Republican Meeting in Fulton.

A mass republican meeting was held last evening at the village of Fulton, in the Congregational church. Though only two days' notice of the meeting had been given, there was a good-sized and intelligent audience of both ladies and gentlemen in attendance. Mr. J. B. Miller, of the town of Porter, presided. Addresses were delivered by James Sutherland, of this city, and J. C. Bartholomew, of Milton. A good degree of enthusiasm was manifested during the meeting. Governor Rusk's name was invariably received with tremendous applause. The resolutions of the town of Fulton will be put in force on election day, and there will be little or no bolting Mr. Bartholomew as candidate for the assembly.

Emerson Grove.

—Mrs. Mary Jones and daughter Martha, have returned from Iowa after a visit of several weeks.

—Mr. E. C. Delamater, who has been spending the past few weeks with friends and relatives in New York state, has returned home on Tuesday of last week. His father is no longer a descendant of the Delamaters.

—Yan D. McArthur, of Chicago, was home on a short visit the latter part of last week, to be present at the silver wedding of his parents.

—Rev. J. M. Matham, the newly appointed of the Chicago Inter Ocean, is en route to the town in the interests of his paper.

—Mr. Fred P. Norcross, son of Captain and Mrs. P. Norcross, of the city, will represent the seniors of Beloit college at President Eaton's inauguration.

—Frank L. Smith, who has been busy for a short time past packing his household effects for removal to Milwaukee, died today. His wife will probably remain here until the end of the week however, on account of ill health.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. Spence returned on Saturday evening from a few days' visit at Waukeeba, and last evening in their accustomed manner royally entertained a number of friends at their elegant residence corner Pleasant and Palm streets in the first ward.

Gossip concerning the '85 Crop and Other matters of Interest.

JANESVILLE.

The market at this place has shown considerable activity during the past week and quite an amount has changed hands from the growers, especially in the '85 crop. Several of the dealers are still in the market and have made a number of purchases during the week. It appears as though the manufacturers are better pleased with it than has been supposed. The '86 crop is coming finely, and shows fair promise to be an excellent crop, and stripping will commence as soon as damp weather comes, to take it down. Shipments for the week have been 274 cases, and receipts were 64 cases divided between New York and Pennsylvania.

At Edgeport last week there were several sales made, although most of them were small. The business is keeping up steadily, but without any sign of a boom.

IN GENERAL.

Senator Spooner's remarks about how the Wisconsin tobacco growers were treated by the democratic farmers (?) of labor at Washington last winter when they tried to secure protection against Sumatra were listened to with great interest. The suspicion entertained by our farmers, that they have been used as cats paws by the free trade democratic congressmen whenever the opportunity offered, gains strength every day.

H. S. Pomeroy, writing to the Edgeport Index, very wisely cautions farmers, against entering into any more "iron clad" tobacco contracts. These contracts state that all delivered tobacco is sold out of this sale. Now, ninety-nine out of one hundred good crops of tobacco have some trace of rust and shed brown, which is a loss in handling can entirely remove, and yet it is not only merchantable tobacco, but may be extremely good tobacco. The object of these contracts on the part of the buyers, is to insure themselves against a possible decline in price, and to enable them to reject as much as they see fit, of the lower grades, as fillers and binders, and this was done quite largely by some of the buyers of the '85 crop.

Mr. Pomeroy says: "If you sign a contract, let it state the facts, as the number of acres, price, etc., and say that the tobacco shall be delivered in merchantable order, and demand an advance price sufficient to secure yourself in case prices should decline. Such a contract binds both parties, and gives neither one an unfair advantage over the other."

NEW YORK CITY.

A solid but even business without noise and excitement is all that can be noted, the season for large transactions appears to have come to an end.

The '85 crop has certainly so far made an exception to the rule which governed most of the crops since 1850. Nobody but a very few dealers in this crop are yet, and a good many people have even secured considerable profit.

The state disappointed smokers considerably, but nevertheless proved a satisfactory investment so far.

CHICAGO.

No sales reported about the week. Local buyers were buying about and occasionally picking up small lots, but foreign purchases are conspicuously absent.—Morning Bulletin.

CONNECTICUT VALLEY.

The '86 crop is mostly coming down, yet there is always more or less of it; yet that is not the case, the crop is fully ripe, and it is feared that some of the harvesters will be disappointed.

The outlook for the new crop is good, with the most perfect crop ever grown in the valley. We hope the growers will not be inclined to ask extravagant prices, and so be compelled to hold over their crops.—American Cultivator.

The Wisconsin, when it reached the market, had a very black eye, because it had very white spots; and right here an explanation is requested from our experts in the trade as to the cause of the white spots, and how to get rid of them.

The annual meeting of the Emerald Grove branch of the Rock County Bible society will be held in the Congregational church next Sabbath morning. Rev. Richard Miller, a former pastor here, is expected to preach the sermon.

On Wednesday, of last week, Rev. D. B. Jackson met with an unpleasant accident. While cutting kindling wood a piece flew up and struck him in the head, and he was seriously injured. It is said to be the result of a fall, and he will be unable to resume his ministerial duties in a week or two. In consequence of the accident there were no services in the Congregational church last Sabbath.

—The G. A. O. of Adams county, and J. C. Bartholomew, of Milton, are booked for republican speeches in this place, on Thursday evening of this week.

—Wm. Street, of Juncosville, will speak here next Saturday evening in the interest of the third party movement.

—Rev. Webster Miller, of Berlin, Wis., was called here by the illness of his wife who has been visiting with her parents for the past few weeks. Mrs. Miller is now in the hospital, and he returned with her husband to their home in Berlin.

—On Friday evening Oct. 22d, a company of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McArthur for the purpose of celebrating the twenty-fifth anniversary of their union. During the evening Mr. Loren Cheney (justice of the peace) examined the knot that tied them first through embers and then through the hands of the guests, and the usual questions and answers were asked. The occasion was a very happy one, and the bride and groom were remembered by their friends who presented to them some very useful and substantial mementoes in the way of silverware, and the bride was presented with a beautiful watch. Among those coming from a distance was their son Willie, Mr. and Mrs. David Blair, Miss Christina Robertson, and Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Robertson all of Chicago.

—Miss Wylie, cousin of Mrs. R. Lippin, returned to her home in Iowa last Thursday after a four week's visit among friends in this neighborhood.

—Sunday evening at about nine o'clock the only fire of the season, which proved to be the old house on the Williams estate about half a mile north of the Grove, which soon burned to the ground, destroying some four or five hundred bushels of barley belonging to E. H. Millington. It was no doubt set on fire by some one for devilry. No law in the statutes is severe enough for punishment in such a case as this. We think some "rigid" law would be needed to put a stop to such a practice in this neighborhood judging from the recent actions of some of the tongues who hang around this place.
